Wishing you Happy Easter, Happy Passover, Ramadan Mubarak, and a healthy spring,

Our Thursday professional learning opportunity is a remarkable opportunity to hear from colleagues and from a long standing nationally recognized leader on learning and teaching.

Jon Saphier, founder of Research for Better Teaching, will join us for a 20-minute presentation about his research and ongoing work. He has graciously shared a chapter from his latest book to be published this summer. There will be time for questions and answers.

Thank you for your ongoing commitment to sharing your many accomplishments, to learning from each other, and to coauthoring a forward-driven education for all learners.

Best,

Mort

Fostering a Love of Learning in Our Education Systems

Dr. Dave Schuler joins Dr. Karen Garza to discuss how education systems can be reimagined to provide meaningful, authentic learning opportunities for students. Referencing examples in his previous district, he also discusses the importance of student voice and bringing a love of learning back to the teaching profession. Listen here.

Learning happens everywhere. We invite any organization in any city across the globe to submit a hands-on learning event for youth and families as a Pop-Up Event!

Our Mission/Our Commitment

The LEARNING 2025 leadership team and mentors/consultants engage communities, staff, and boards in discussions about strategies to address existing and perceived barriers to district transformation. Many of the challenges we face are not problems that have an obvious or quick answer; rather, they are challenges, conundrums, and polarities that need to be navigated. We are committed to involving all stakeholders in identifying, managing, and breaking those barriers so that leaders can focus on the whole system.
