

META and NCCE partner to assist and educate Montana school districts with E-Rate Services

Is your school district maximizing E-Rate funding?

Support for school districts including:

- Technology planning support and RFP development
- Professional Development
  - SAM events
  - Regional meetings
  - Webinars
- Schedule appointments with school districts during the META & NCCE Rate summer road trip event

For more information on NCCE's E-Rate services:

LEADERSHIP
INNOVATION
LEARNING

Eric Chambers

DIRECTOR OF E-RATE AND SERVICES

360.899.8704 | echambers@ncce.org

www.ncce.org/e-rate

NCCE is proud to be a 2016-2017 SAM Business Partner

Your Partner for Success

NCCE partners with educational organizations and certified trainers to bring cutting-edge, world-class professional development to our members. Through a variety of learning opportunities, NCCE delivers informative, innovative content in an intensive, yet collaborative atmosphere. Trainings and materials are delivered via formal traditional coursework, online learning environments, conferences and hands-on training.

www.ncce.org

Providing year-round professional development opportunities for K-12 administrators, educators and support staff

Resources and Learning Opportunities

- Customized Professional Development
- Google Apps for Education
- Library of Congress - Teaching with Primary Sources Training
- Microsoft Creative Coding through Games and Apps
- Microsoft Global Training Partner
- Microsoft Innovative Educator (MIE) Program
- Microsoft in the Classroom (MIC) Program
- Minecraft

NCCE is a nationally recognized professional learning organization focused on educational technology for education leaders. With over 4000 members, NCCE is an nationally recognized ISTE affiliate, Global Training Partner for Microsoft in Education, and hosts the largest ed-tech conference in the Pacific Northwest. NCCE works with K-12 educators, administrators and support staff to personalize learning experiences and strategically align technology initiatives with other state, district and school initiatives.